

EMMY AWARD WINNING PRODUCER
C: 512-589-5049 / E: debradavis1001@gmail.com

Emmy Award Winning Producer, Debra Davis creates groundbreaking media solutions at high profile events for broadcast, mobile, and IPTV. Davis specializes in television series, special events, festivals, live music, award shows and corporate entertainment, meetings and galas. Some career highlights include:

- “Harvey Can’t Mess with Texas, Concert and Benefit, with Willie Nelson, Paul Simon, James Taylor, Bonnie Raitt, Lyle Lovett, Ryan Bingham, Leon Bridges, Nathaniel Rateliff, Matthew McConaughey
- Emmy for NBC’s Olympics Broadcast
- Ten consecutive years producing the webcast and video for Austin City Limits Music Festival, Lollapalooza Music Festival, and Stagecoach (the first major country festival to do a webcast, featuring the biggest names in country music)
- Ten consecutive years producing Coachella Music and Arts Festival – a 3 channel webcast featuring nearly 100 artists, streaming approximately 100 hours of live TV, including originals story segments and artist interviews with host Jason Bentley.
- Three consecutive years of producing the live webcast and video for Bonnaroo Music Festival and Outside Lands Music Festival
- Desert Trip - a two-weekend concert event featuring The Rolling Stones, Bob Dylan, Paul McCartney, Neil Young, Roger Waters and The Who
- SXSW (‘17), Videotaped feature speakers and panels and live webcast of Joe Biden and Garth Brooks
- First ever 360 VR webcast from Coachella Music and Arts Festival - The immersive experience was available on mobile devices and virtual reality headsets through the Coachella VR app
- Six consecutive years producing “Petcasso, Animal Art From The Heart”, Fund raiser for Animal Trustees of Austin, consistently raising 35 percent of their yearly operating funds
- Facilitated the start-up of MTV-Asia, living in Singapore and traveling Asia creating content
- Three consecutive Tony Awards Broadcasts
- “World’s Largest Pep Rally”, with Dave Matthews at West Point, NY
- “Rollergirls”, A&E Reality series, 13 episodes
- Original children’s series “Out Of The Box” and “As The Bell Rings”, for The Disney Channel and “Jammin’ Animals” for HBO Family.
- Multiple seasons of “Hard Rock Live” for VH-1 - at its inception was the only live music series on TV
- Two visits to the White House, as the guest of President Reagan and President Bush

Other credits: Nine Inch Nails, at the Staples Center, The Cosmopolitan Hotel and Casino’s Grand Opening and New Year’s Eve Celebration with Jay-Z, Coldplay, Kanye West, John Mayer and Beyoncé. All Access event featuring Sia and Leslie Jones. Warped Tour 15th Anniversary in Cinemas - two-hour concert feature film, shown in 450 theaters by NCM/Fathom. NBA Championship Half-time, Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, Dave Matthews In The Spotlight for PBS, Soap Opera Update Awards, Colm Wilkinson/Patti Lupone PBS Special, International Emmy Awards, Montreal Comedy Festival, Ford’s Theater Live Gala Fundraiser, and Prodigy Live (300+ live commercials broadcast on nine networks). As producer, director and writer for West Glen, Davis produced videos for over fifty clients. Some of Davis’ meeting / business theater productions include ExxonMobil International managers’ (five-day meeting in Rome, Italy), the Marriott Manager’s Meeting closing party featuring Grammy winner, Brian Setzer. Additionally, she has produced or directed numerous commercials, PSA’s, special events and industrials.

A native Texan, she lived in New York City for two decades with a year spent in Singapore facilitating the creation of MTV-Asia. Davis has produced video and events all nearly every major US city and all over the world including several films for the Israel Tourist Board, a beauty pageant in Brazil, multiple feature segments throughout Asia for MTV-Asia, four consecutive years of the Monte Carlo Circus, post hurricane coverage in Jamaica, NBA Playoff in Paris and Canada’s Comedy Festival in Montreal. Currently, Davis lives in Austin, Texas. For more information see www.debradavisproductions.com.